REMARKS

On Wednesday, November 4, 2020 at 1117 hours I, Officer Skarzynski was dispatched to Middletown Police Headquarters for a walk-in complaint, domestic related. Victim-1 wanted to report that her ex-boyfriend, later identified as Jamie O'Ryan violated an Order of Protection when he sent her text messages on this day.

It should be known that Victim-1 and Jamie were in a dating relationship for over four years and have one child in common. They have been broken up for the past the past four to six months. On October 1, 2020 (MPD 20-28805) Middletown Police responded to a known address in Middletown for a physical related domestic incident which resulted in the arrest of Jamie O'Ryan. Victim-1 had been allegedly stabbed by Jamie numerous times which resulted in his arrest. Jamie was charged with Connecticut General Statute(s); 53-206 Carrying a Dangerous Weapon, 53a-63 Reckless Endangerment 1, 53a-59(a)(1) Assault 1, and 53-21(a)(1) Risk of Injury(2 cts), said case is pending. Jamie was released from custody on October 27, 2020 under Pretrial Probation and was being monitored with a court ordered GPS unit. The Order of Protection named Jamie O'Ryan as the Respondent and Victim-1 as the Protectee. Jamie conditions were listed as; CT00, CT01, CT03, CT05, CT16, CT19, and CTF (surrender or transfer all firearms or ammunition).

Victim-1 showed me her cell phone and the text messages allegedly sent from Jamie O'Ryan. Victim-1 said that the phone number that was used to text her was from a text app, later identified as a third party carrier,

In a sworn written statement, Victim-1 told me how she was able to identify the person sending her text messages as Jamie O'Ryan. On this day, Victim-1 said she was at work and started to receive messages from Jaime. Jaime text Victim-1 how sorry he was for hurting her and how he put her children at risk. Jaime said that he did not know what happened to him on the night he stabbed Victim-1. Victim-1 explained that she knew Jaime had sent the text messages from some details that only she would have known. Victim-1 said that on the day of the attack she text messaged Jamie asking if he could come over and watch the children, Victim-1 had made plans to go on a date. Victim-1 also said that on the night of the attack, Jaime wanted her to stay home and talk to him. Jaime had mentioned this in today's text message. Lastly, in today's text message Jamie said that he knew the person that Victim-1 was going to go on a date with on the night of the attack. In today's text Jaime said he knew him from a bar he used to work at. Victim-1 knew that Jamie worked at a bar as a bouncer.

Victim-1 also stated that she reported this to the police today because she feels as though Jamie has nothing to lose. Victim-1 said that Jamie tried to kill her and knows he is going to jail for a long time. Victim-1 said that she is terrified and thinks that Jaime is going to kill her if he gets the chance again. Victim-1 said that she had been receiving text messages all day from Jaime and wanted him to stop. At approximately 1500 hours myself, Officer Carta, Officer Owens, and Lieutenant Aresco went to #110 Spring Street and made contact with Jamie O'Ryan. Jaime was searched, placed in handcuffs and transported to Middletown Police Headquarters without incident. Upon arrival, Jaime was advised of his rights, fingerprinted, photographed and processed. After being processed, Jaime told me that he had nothing to do with sending text messages to Jamie's cell phone was seized as evidence. Jaime O'Ryan is being charged with violating Connecticut General Statute 53a-223b Criminal Violation of a Protective Order. Jamie is being held at Middletown Police on a $150,000.00 (one hundred fifty thousand dollar) Surety Bond and is scheduled to appear at Middletown Superior Court on Thursday, November 5, 2020 at 0900 hours.
